

Report
from the ad hoc Committee on the eligibility criteria for the ECPC Elections 2016

Brussels, 5th June 2016

To the attention of the ECPC General Assembly

In line with the Guide to Elections, the Committee is responsible to check that the documents submitted by the elected candidates for the ECPC Elections 2016 are appropriate and in line with the requirements of Article 7.7 of the ECPC statute.

The ad hoc Committee was composed by

- Jacqueline Daly, representing the ECPC Member "East Galway & Midlands Cancer Support";
- Michael Lehy, representing the ECPC Member "Slainte Co Clare";
- Konstantinos Apostolopoulos, representing the ECPC Member " Agkaliazo Achaia"

They expressed their wish to volunteer to take part to Committee during the ECPC Annual General Meeting.

Each elected candidate was requested to submit:

- A declaration of good behaviour;
- A list of professional activities performed during the last three years;
- A declaration of interest.

The Committee met on the 4th June to check the documents submitted by the candidates elected. The documents were collected by the ECPC Secretariat. The Committee analysed the documents received and found that all candidates have submitted the document requested.

The Committee therefore recommend the General Assembly to confirm the results of the Elections 2016.

In faith

Jacqueline Daly

Michael Lehy

Konstantinos Apostolopoulos

