

AGENDA

23rd February 2022

Welcome

- Tom Flynn, TFC

Session 1: The impact of cancer on patient mental well-being - A - Psycho-Oncologist perspective

- Gerd Murphy, University Hospital Waterford

Session 2: The MENHIR experience: MENHIR corpus collection and analysis, user modelling, conversational interaction design and personalization

- Zoraida Callejas, University of Granada

Tea/ Coffee break

Session 3: Integrated cancer care for the older cancer champions based on Big- Data and QoL behaviour: the LifeChamps project

- Prof. Panos Bamidi & Dr. Andtonis Billis, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki

Session 4: Open Discussion on the morning and an outline of the afternoon session and audience Q&A chat

- Tom Flynn, TFC

Lunch break

Session 5: Patient engagement in clinical trials.

- Kathi Apostilidis, Past President European Cancer Patient Coalition

Session 6: The FAITH Project- Improving the Quality of Life in cancer survivors through the use of technology for the identification & analyses of depression makers - An understanding

- Philip O' Brien, M.Eng. WIT

Tea/ Coffee break

Session 7: PERSIST (Presentation & Demo) - Introduction to PERSIST ecosystem and demonstration of patient application

- Victoria Cal, Gradient & Gazihan Alankus - Emoda Software

Session 8: QUALITOP - Where we are and what next!

- Delphine Maucort Boulch, Hospices Civils De Lyon

Session 9: Patient & Reseach - Round Table discussion with Patients on engaged Cluster projects

- Charis Girvalaki, Euuropean Cancer Patient Coalition

Feedback from the European Commission and Questions

AGENDA

24th February 2022

Welcome

- Tom Flynn, TFC

Session 1: European Commission presentation on patient engagement in research projects and proposals.

- John Ryan, European Commission (TBC)

Session 2: CLARIFY (Presentation & Demo) - CLARIFY Platform: actionable knowledge for improving cancer long survivor's quality of life.

- Maria Torrente, SERMAS HUPHM
- Pedro Sousa & Joao Pimentao, HOLOS

Tea / Coffee break

Session 3: ONCORELIEF - Quality of life in cancer survivors: can we measure it and improve it?

- Sotiris Diamantopoulos, EXUS

Session 4: Discussion on the morning and an outline of the afternoon session.

- Tom Flynn, TFC

Lunch break

Session 5: ASCAPE: AI-powered framework, clinical testing and patient engagement.

- Ionnais Avramidis, UBITECH

Session 6: REBECCA: Vision and demonstration of the patient mobile application and the web browser plugin

- Ioannis Sarafis, AUTH
- Lazaros Apostolidis, CERTH-ITI

Session 7: The Cancer Survivorship - AI for well-being - Cluster: Where are we and where collaboratively we are going

- Antonis Billis, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki
- Tom Flynn, TFC

Feedback from the EC on Day 2, Open discussions, full event, actions arising out of the 2 day MoM4 event, Next steps for Cluster group